Mr. Nasby Calmly Reviews the Sit CONFEDRIT X ROADS, (Wich is in the State uv Kentucky), January 24, 1880.

Sence my return from Augusty, I hev eard the nooze from the State uv Maine. That onmittygatid noosance Jim Blaine hez yeokered the Democrisy, and hez taken poseshun uv the State, and wat is worse a very hevvy majority uv the people uv the State sustains him in his youserpashen.

The people uv Maine are so besotted. that they skornfully reject the sweet boon uv Dimekratic rool, and I may say, ez wuz sed about Jeroosalem, "We wood hev that inconvenient infirmity of age-an in gathered you under our wings ez a henhawk gathereth chickens, but ye wood hawk gathereth chickens, but ye wood not."

To see the Republikin Legislacher comfortably installed in the State House, wich is heated by steam and hez cushened seats, a passin laws like anything, while the distressed Dimekratic members uv wat we consider the legle legislacher is a holdin its sessions on the cold side walks, a seat on a fence bein considered a luxury, is a site to move the gods to pity. And then when one considers that the Dimekratic Legislacher is paying its own board and its own liker bills without the remotest hope uv gittin a cent uv it back out uv the State Treasury, it is enuff to melt a hart of stun and to draw teers from a stun monument.

Legal when I remembers more than most men, and what comes to his mind is always worth remembering. Which is not the case with most men. He lectures at Concord this week—giving what will be his hundredth lecture before the lyceum of that town. His health is firm, his spirit cheerful and serence, as in earlier years, but he sees fewer visitors and finds his days more precious, as they grow fewer. He writes little, reads much, and is revising those papers which he will never publish, but which will yet appear in print some day. His life is no longer a public one in any sense, and those who love him should respect his privacy, and allow one who has served his age so faithfully to withdraw from it as gently as he came hefore.

Then, to make ashoorence doubly shoor, he shood immejitly hev shot the entire Soopreme Court, for it is a melancholly fact that the courts are ginerally agin the Dimocrisy. Then he wood hev hed em. Notwithstanding the facts that lots uv returns from Towns came in, in wich the 's wunn't dotted and the 's wunn't crossed, we are forced to resine the Legislacher and the controle uv the State to the Radi-kels, and the Dimocrasy is, literally out in the cold.

Gov. Garcelon is a failure. He didn't ketch on to the hull idee. His idee uv steelin the State wuz good enuff, but he needed shot guns to hold it. Lackin shot guns, the property slid out uv his hands, and to-day he is a laffin stock. Ef Blane and Chamberlin hed bin in Mississippi they woodent have worried us a great while.

Advice to a Young Man.

My son, enjoy yourself. Have a good time; pleasure is eminently right and proper, but a good time isn't secured by a peadache that lasts all the next day. The implest pleasures are the most lasting. After you have spent two years in Europe, you will come back and sit down by your fireside and think of a picnic you rope, you will come back and sit down by your fireside and think of a picnic you went to down at the Cascade one afternoon in June, cost you sixty-five cents. The "good times" that you darn't take your wife to, my son, that you would lie about rather than have your sister know about them, the "goodness" of them never comes back to refresh you and gladden your heart as does the memory of, that sixty-five cent picnic, when you chattered nonsense with the girl you loved, and laughed just as the leaves rustled, because you couldn't help it. The "good time" that wakes in the morning and wonders where it was, and who saw it, and where all the money is gone; the good time that tails off with the headache, there's precious little fun in that. And it only takes a very little bitterness of that kind to poison and cloud the memories of the past. It doesn't take much of such "good times" my boy, to mingle tears with your bread, and gall with your drink. The sting is the smallest part of the bee, but when you pick it up by it, though the rest of the bee were as large as an omnibus horse, yet would the sting outweight all the good, sweet, harmless, honey-laden proportion of the bee, and you would think about it oftner and longer.—Burlington Howeye.

ABOUT WOMEN.

GAIL HAMILTON has written a new book Evra since 1872 there has been a "Matrimonial Agency" on Broadway, New York, to secure husbands and wives or "ladies and gentlemen of unquestion-drespectability."

LILLIE DARST is the first lady clerk appointed to office in the Ohio Legislature. She is also probably the first clerk of either sex that was ever elected there unanimously, without even an opposition candidate being nominated.

candidate being nominated.

Commissioner Wheeler, of the New York Board of Education, recommends that the Assistant Superintendent of schools in that city be a woman. He is warmly in favor of the measure. There has also been so much corruption among the school trustees that in Hoboken, Brooklyn, and elsewhere East, the movement to make woman members of chool Boards is growing strongly in popılar favor.

world has fallen into utter neglect and de-cay. It is the manufacture of the beauti-ful Irish poplin. Certainly there can be no handsomer or durable dress goods than this, but scarcely a bolt a year is made of it. The Irish charge that it is the fault of it. The Irish charge that it is the fault of England. It is partly because of the un-generous restriction laid upon the woolen trade in Ireland. The main reason, howtrade in Ireland. The main reason, nowever, is the same reason that has brought wear their lovely home made goods, for the simple reason that it is Irish.

The individual who writes in the New York Truth never missed the truth farther in his life than when he says President Hayes is "ruled by a woman." The statement is not only false; it is mean. Mrs. Hayes has intellectual power and education above the average of her sex, and undoubtedly might make her presence felt in many ways about the White House if she chose. But she does not choose to meddle in politics; on the contrary, greatly to her credit, she abstains strictly from interfering in appointments, or with any other Presidential prerogatives. Certainly, in twenty years no mistress of the White House has been so careful in this respect. She wisely confines her sphere of action to her domestic and social duties. These she performs so well that her like has rarely been seen in the Executive Mansion. Some Presidents' wives are ignorant others are stupid, and still others are silly. Among these—among all of them, in fact —Mrs. Hayes shines like a star.
